

Quack!

Hi Vintage Duck Supporters!

2009 is about to EXPLODE!

There are so many exciting things happening at the Duck this March/April. With Orpheus casting and auditions about to get started, we're busy little ducklings. But we just have to tell you our HUGE news!!

....wait for it....

THE WEBSITE !

After a bit of a wait (well worth it though), the website is up and running!!!

You can now find us at www.vintageduck.com.au

Now we can keep you updated of all the happenings at the Duck online. Over the next few months we'll be adding additional features and photos, so keep an eye out. Soon you'll be able to book tickets online, see interviews with the cast, receive info about upcoming productions and view photos from our previous shows. Of course, we'll still keep you updated via our email list but the website is smashing and well worth a look.

SHOW NEWS

ORPHEUS IN THE UNDERWORLD

As you probably already know, Vintage Duck's major show for 2009 is 'Orpheus in the Underworld', a wonderful edgy romp down to Hades and beyond. We're creating a completely new show... a grungy, kaleidoscopic, operatic circus... (That's quite a mouthful) that's going to go off! Furthermore, the show will be the premiere of Andy Peterson's new score and a brand new book and lyrics, all of which will be sure to entertain.

Of course, what makes Duck shows so memorable are the people who create the performances... because it's the collaborative efforts of a passionate cast and crew that result in the very best shows. So we're on a search, starting the 5th and 9th of April for a cast that will take Orpheus to the next level. Applications are open and all audition info can be found at www.vintageduck.com.au/auditions or by emailing bron@vintageduck.com.au or ringing Bron on 0417249596.

Calling all potential Ducklings...

Your support is always valued so, if you would like to be part of a Duck show, whether onstage or behind the scenes, please email Bron at bron@vintageduck.com.au

Until next time... Quack on!
